BANK ENTERED;
LOSS UNKNOWNRobbers Blow Open Vault
Following Robbery of Store

KAMAS, Aug. 16.—The Kamas state bank was entered and robbed about 1 o'clock yesterday morning. Entrance was effected by prying the front door of the bank open. The first door of the vault was blown open while the inner door was blown loose. The robbers apparently inspected the contents of the safe thoroughly and seemingly scorned all money smaller than a dollar. Nickels and dimes were strewn over the floor of the vault.

No statement regarding the extent of the bank's loss has been announced and the vault is under guard until representatives of Salt Lake insurance companies arrive to appraise the damage.

The explosion which opened the inner vault was heard by a number of people, some of whom rushed to the bank. Nothing out of the way was seen and the robbery was not discovered until morning.

R. M. King, owner of the general merchandise store, reported that his store had been entered, his safe blown and $1000 taken. Trade chips, scattered over the floor of the bank, indicated that the two robbers had been accompanied by the same persons.

S. H. McGarry, sheriff of Summit county, believes that the robbers were accompanied by local people. A number of well defined finger prints which the robbers left, will assist materially in locating the guilty parties, he said.

A. C. to Open for Fall Term Sept. 13

LOGAN, Aug. 16.—The calendar for the 1926-27 college year at the Utah Agricultural college has just been announced by Prof. William Peterson, who was appointed by the college faculty last spring to do this work. According to the calendar the fall term will open on Monday, September 13, when entrance examinations will be held and registration of former students and new students admitted on certificates will take place. On Tuesday, the 14th, classes will organize. The fall quarter will end November 25, when the Thanksgiving recess will begin.

The winter quarter opens November 29 and closes March 5, with the Christmas holidays running from December 23, 1926, to January 4, 1927, inclusive. The spring quarter opens March 7 and closes May 30.

During the winter quarter a number of events of statewide importance are scheduled. From January 17 to 22 the Farmers' Roundup and Housekeepers' conference will be held at the Branch Agricultural college at Cedar City. From January 21 to February 5 the extension division convention of extension workers from all over Utah will take place at Logan from January 24 to 29, and the exhibition of arts and crafts by Utah artists will be held at the U. A. C. from January 31 to February 12.

During the spring quarter the annual junior extension week for high school agricultural and home economics clubs will be held from April 13 to 25.

The usual oratorical and public speaking contests are scheduled and the regular social events, plays, operas and debates.

TELLS POLICE OF FIGHT WITH ALLEGED HOLD-UP

SALT LAKE, Aug. 16.—D. Barnes, 70 years old, is in jail for investigation, following an alleged revolver attack upon Roy H. Coburn, 619 South Second West street.

Coburn claims that while walking along Third South street between First and Second West streets, he passed Barnes. He immediately turned and saw Barnes raise a revolver and point it at him.

Grasping the revolver, he struck Barnes a blow that knocked him to the sidewalk. The aged man retained his grasp on the weapon and during the struggle pointed the weapon at Coburn's heart. Only by exerting terrific pressure on the man's wrist did Coburn prevent the discharge of the weapon, he told the police.

Coburn's call for help brought J. Flohn, 350 Lake street, and Barnes was held until officers arrived on the scene.

Barnes was found to be carrying a .38 caliber revolver loaded with five cartridges. Coburn suffered a serious sprain to his thumb and forefinger as the result of the blow he struck Barnes. He was given treatment at the emergency hospital.

Dies in Salt Lake

SALT LAKE, Aug. 16.—Colonel Thomas G. Webber, 84 years of age, died at his home, 131 Second avenue, yesterday afternoon, after an illness of a year's duration.

Colonel Webber was best known from his connection with the Z. C. M. I., of which for many years he had been secretary, superintendent and director. He was a pioneer newspaper man of the west, being associated with Colonel T. B. H. Stenhouse in publishing the Telegraph in 1864 in Salt Lake, the first daily newspaper issued in Utah. He likewise published the Telegraph, the first daily in Ogden.

Colonel Webber was business manager of the Salt Lake Telegraph until the paper was removed to Ogden in 1889. He filled the same position there only for a short time, returning to Salt Lake to become connected with Zion's Co-operative Mercantile Institution. He was made secretary of the organization in 1871 and in 1875 the office of treasurer was added to his duties. He resigned to go on a mission for the Mormon church to Europe in 1876.

While abroad Colonel Webber toured England, France, Italy and Switzerland, being called to Salt Lake in the winter of 1877-78 to aid in settling Brigham Young's estate.

At the annual meeting of stockholders of Zion's Co-operative Mercantile Institution in the fall of 1878, Colonel Webber was elected secretary and treasurer, which offices he filled until ten years later, when he became general superintendent and secretary.

HEAVY FINE IMPOSED
UPON FISH SEINERS

POCATELLO, Aug. 16.—C. H. Model and Raymond Magee of Eden, Ida., arrested for seining fish in the Lost river, appeared before Judge K. K. Saturday and were fined $116 each.

Model and Magee were the first men to be caught in a serious violation of Idaho's game laws. They were arrested by Game Warden Joe Paul of Arco, and each man, it is alleged, had about 100 pounds of fish in his possession.

The fish were sold at 10 cents a pound.

It was discovered that neither man possessed a fishing license, so a second charge was preferred against them.

TINTIC SHIPMENTS
FALL OFF IN WEEK

EUREKA, Aug. 16.—Ore shipments from the mines of the Tintic district for the past week totaled 122 carloads, as compared with 150 carloads for last week. One carload of bullion was shipped from the Tintic mill.

Mines and the number of carloads of ore shipped from each follow: Chief Consolidated, 42 carloads; Tintic Standard, 18; Eagle and Blue Bell, 14; Dragon, 13; Iron Blossom, 7; Iron King, 5; Victoria, 5; Swansea, 4; Centennial-Eureka, 4; Colorado, 3; Gemini, 2; Silver Park, 1; Tintic Mill (bullion), 1; Empire Mine, 1 and Bullion-Beck, 1. Total shipments, 122 carloads.

ELKO FLYING FIELD
TENTATIVELY APPROVED

ELKO, Aug. 16.—Tentative approval of the Rickenbacker flying field at Elko as a service station for aerial mail planes has been made by Colonel Jordan, chief of the aerial mail service.

Announcements that a radio station will be installed at Elko have also been made by E. Sibley and J. C. Edgerton. Two pilots and four mechanics of the aerial mail service will be stationed at Elko, it is claimed.

ATTEMPT MADE
TO ARREST COXDemocrats Charge Republican
Effort to Embarrass Nominee on Speaking Tour

COLUMBUS, Aug. 15.—An unsuccessful attempt to arrest Governor Cox on a charge of speeding and an accident to one of the cars of newspapermen accompanying him, furnished excitement today in the motor trip on the return from Wheeling, W. Va.

The attempt to arrest the governor and his party was declared by Roy E. Leyton, adjutant general of Ohio to have been planned by Republicans to embarrass the Democratic nominee. He said a warning of the plan had been received yesterday.

At Jackonsontown, Ohio, about 32 miles east of Columbus, the party rode slowly through disorganizing outstretched arms of a shirtless man and also many persons gathered. Within a few minutes two motorcycle officers stopped the cars, declaring all under arrest and demanding their return to the town.

Governor Cox identified himself, but the officers said they had orders to arrest all four automobiles "no matter who they contained" on charges of speeding.

"You can reach me at the executive offices at Columbus any time," Governor Cox replied, ordering all cars to proceed and leaving the officers busy taking down car numbers.

Soon afterwards during a rain and in a jam of automobiles on a slippery road, one of the correspondent's cars was forced up an embankment and on an interurban roadbed, partially overturning, to avoid other cars ahead. Occupants were uninjured.

Despite the incidents, the governor secured much rest on the trip from Wheeling, where he made five addresses yesterday.

Cox is to speak at Columbus Tuesday before the Ohio Democratic convention at South Bend, Ind., Thursday before the state Democratic editors, and at a "Cox Day" celebration at Canton Saturday.

Senator Owen of Oklahoma, a friend of Mr. Bryan and a candidate for the presidential nomination, arrived today to confer with Governor Cox. He said he was not an emissary of Mr. Bryan, but felt sure that the Oklahomans would support the ticket. His conference, he said, was to give information supporting Governor Cox's statement that plans have been laid to impair the federal reserve act.

IRRIGATION RESERVOIR
NEAR RENO IS PLANNED

ELICO, Nev., Aug. 16.—As a means of storing flood waters of the Truckee river, the construction of a large storage reservoir near Reno has been proposed by State Engineer Scruggs and Governor Boyle.

The storage reservoir, it is said, will afford relief to ranchers and water users who are now dependent upon the Lake Tahoe storage for their irrigation water.

It is estimated that the reservoir and canal will cost $2,000,000. The government will defray half the expense while the state will supply the additional half. Irrigation districts have indicated a favorable attitude towards the project but no assurance as to the furnishing of funds on the part of the government has yet been received.

POCATELLO CLAIMS
FIRST IN RECRUITS

POCATELLO, Ida., Aug. 16.—With the enlistment of five men yesterday in the navy, Pocatello now holds first place in the list of substations in the Salt Lake district for the number of recruits taken in during the month.

The men who signed up the naval service were Frank A. Kendall of Twin Falls; Emery A. Wilkins of Ucon, and William D. Stroudy, H. J. Badger and Dallas Meynard, all of Twin Falls.

CONTRABAND LIQUOR
SEIZED IN GEM STATE

POCATELLO, Ida., Aug. 16.—D. Baugh and Mrs. W. H. Baugh of Shoshone, Idaho; Jules Furch and W. A. Lester of Gooding, were arrested by Sheriff Wheeler of Lincoln county as they were coming from Montana with ten cases of contraband liquor.

The seizure of the liquor marks the largest capture of contraband liquor that has been made for some time in Idaho. The selling of the liquor would have netted the owners several thousand dollars. The prisoners were released on bonds.

OGDEN JAPANESE BUYS
PROPERTY FOR COLONY

ELKO, Nev., Aug. 16.—Formation of a Japanese colony in Ruby valley near this city is reported as being considered. Twenty-one Japanese there now hold 3840 acres. Twenty of the land holders live in Ogden, and the other in Honolulu.

The land was sold to the foreigners by Ira D. Wines of Salt Lake City.

WAR ON FRANCEAlliance With Germany Proposed to Assist in Conquest of French

KOLNO, Poland, Aug. 14.—(By Courier to Dittowson, East Prussia.)—By The Associated Press.—Soviet Russia intends to seek an alliance with Germany to make war on France, and if it succeeds, to undertake a conquest of England and eventually America, officials of the Bolshevik regime told The Associated Press today.

When the Polish war, considered a purely Russian business is finished, a note will be sent to Berlin, they declared, demanding permission to transport troops across Germany for the French campaign. On refusal, which is taken for granted, a revolution will be instituted in Germany, the success of which Bolsheviks asserted they were prepared to assure by force of arms.

FRENCH TO BE SHOT

With these ends in view, Russian soldiers who have been told all wars shall cease with victory over the Poles are being subjected to propaganda which declares Frenchmen will be shot on sight, but that the Germans are friends who soon will intervene. The intentions have been corroborated by information gathered by the correspondent in conversations with German representatives of the Eastern Front, who interviewed Bolshevik army chiefs. Bolshevik leaders declared that within three weeks they will completely control Poland, including the Poles, who they intend to occupy, leaving a ten-kilometer neutral zone about Danzig.

When the correspondent arrived here, crossing the border at Czestochowa, he was met by a Polish soldier with a white collar, he called on the Polish soviet commissary who recently was established in offices by the Bolshevik military.

Han Scharnewsky, the commissary, is a Polish Jew with protruding eyes, and blonde mustache, and wears a white collar. He acknowledged the correspondent's greeting and then sat down to dinner, ignoring the American. At the commissary's side, a Russian soldier armed with a revolver stood watch and all conversation was interpreted to him in Russian. The commissary's assistant, a former German officer, said this Russian was a soviet representative who watched all business transacted by Scharnewsky and reported to the soviet central government, although he never interfered with the commissary's procedure.

HAS HEARTY MEAL

When the commissary finished eating his meal of soup, steak smothered with onions, potatoes and beer, he stalked to his office, directing the correspondent to wait. After an hour he returned, demanding the correspondent's passports which he gave a cursory inspection and then returned to his office.

After waiting two hours, the correspondent wandered about, talking to inhabitants, among whom were many Jews. He was told they did not know whether they were going under Russian, Polish or German rule, but said they had heard rumors there would be a plebiscite in which the people would be permitted to vote whether they desired to adhere to Russia or Germany. Inhabitants declared such a vote would be overwhelmingly for Germany.

Everywhere the people asked for news of the war and other news of the world, saying all intelligence came from the German border through conversations with German guards, who sometimes gave them German newspapers.

There is no commerce with the rest of Russia by telephone, telegraph or

Girl Held Prisoner
by Kin at Kemmerer

KEMMERER, Wyo., Aug. 14.—That her daughter, 15 years old, had been a virtual prisoner at the ranch of John Pappas, and that Pappas had mistreated the girl, is the complaint made by Mrs. Mary Hill of Bloomington, Neb., to County Attorney J. A. Christmas and Sheriff D. C. Oakley.

Pappas, Mrs. Hill stated, married her niece, who invited Miss Hill to the ranch on a visit. Pappas forwarded money for the girl to make the journey from Nebraska.

After some time had elapsed, during which she received no news from her daughter, she wrote to have the girl sent home. The letter apparently was disregarded and Mr. and Mrs. Hill immediately set out for Kemmerer in an automobile.

The girl, Mrs. Hill claims, was found in a pitiful condition. She was desperately ill and only partially dressed, her clothes having been taken away. The girl was taken, half dressed, to Opal, where a physician pronounced her trouble diphtheria and the county health officer took charge. She was brought to Kemmerer and is now in the contagion ward of the Lincoln County Miners' hospital.

Pending the outcome of Miss Hill's illness a warrant charging assault and battery was sworn to and served by Deputy Sheriff William Conroy.

STATES SHE HAD SUFFERED FOR
FIFTEEN YEARSGrandniece of Founder of the Christian Church Gains 35
Pounds by Taking Tanlac

"I have just finished my third bottle of Tanlac and have actually gained 35 pounds in weight," was the statement made recently by Mrs. W. T. Conway, 809 East Hildpark street, South St. Joseph, Mo. Mrs. Conway is one of the best known and most highly respected women in South St. Joseph, and is a grandniece of Alexander Campbell, founder of the Christian church.

"For at least fifteen years I had suffered dreadfully from stomach trouble and nervous indigestion. I gradually grew worse until finally I lost my appetite, and even when I did manage to eat a little something it caused me intense suffering. After every meal what I had eaten fermented and bloated me up with gas until I could hardly breathe. I suffered so from dizziness that I have actually fallen to the floor. I had pains all through my body nearly all the time, which were especially bad in the small of my back. My nerves were so upset that it was simply impossible for me to get a good night's sleep. Finally I became so run-down and weak that for months at a time I could not do my housework or even leave my room."

"I tried many different medicines, but nothing seemed to reach my case until I started taking Tanlac, and the first bottle of it did me more good than everything else I had taken put together. I am still taking it, although I have been practically relieved of all my troubles. Things I had not dared to eat in years now agree with me perfectly. I am almost entirely relieved of pain, am never troubled with dizziness, I can do my housework without a particle of trouble. In fact, I don't remember when I have enjoyed as good health as I do now, and it is all due to what Tanlac has done for me."

Tanlac is sold in Ogden by A. R. McIntyre Drug Co. Two busy stores.—Advertisement.

MAN, 86, FLEES WIFE
AND "WON'T GO BACK"

(By International News Service.)—AURORA, Ill.—Even if they take Daniel F. Thew, eighty-six, back to Morrisonville, N. T., and his wife he will run away again, he says. Thew was arrested here as a tramp. He had $3,270.74 in his pockets when arrested. The chief of police of Aurora received a telegram from Morrisonville, N. Y., asking that Thew be held. It was then disclosed that he was a wife deserter.

"Yes, I did run away," Thew said. "I left because my wife has been trying to get my money. We were married six years ago, when I was eighty years old. I don't know how old she is, I never asked her, but I know she is old enough to be wise. She wanted my money, so I just took it out of the bank and left. They can get me if they want to, but I'll run away again. She ain't going to get my money."
